Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement for Fiscal Year 2017

Koppers recognizes the need to address the issues of modern slavery and human trafficking and has prepared this statement pursuant to the Modern Slavery Act 2015. This statement sets out our actions towards ensuring that slavery and human trafficking are not taking place in our own business or in our supply chains, through the end of our fiscal year, December 31, 2017.

Koppers is a leading integrated global provider of treated wood products, wood treatment chemicals, and carbon compounds. Our products and services are used in a variety of niche applications in a diverse range of end-markets, including the railroad, specialty chemical, utility, residential lumber, agriculture, aluminum, steel, rubber, and construction industries. We serve our customers through a comprehensive global manufacturing and distribution network, with manufacturing facilities located in North America, South America, Australasia, China and Europe.

Koppers and its subsidiaries are committed to conducting business in accordance with our Corporate Values. We expect every employee, manager, executive, and director of the company to uphold the highest standards of ethics, compliance, and transparency. Our goal is to act with honesty and integrity, across our global operations and in all business and community dealings. These expectations are set forth in the Koppers Code of Conduct and reflected in our sustainability efforts.

Koppers Code of Conduct requires employees, managers, executives, and directors of the company to obey the law and to assist the company in doing business in full compliance with the law, including laws related to labor and worker health and safety in all locations where the company operates and laws related to the elimination of modern slavery. We provide all employees with the opportunity and means to raise concerns about potential violations of our Code of Conduct or the law. Violations of the Code of Conduct or the law are not tolerated or condoned. Every Koppers employee receives annual training on our Code of Conduct.

Koppers expects the same ethical conduct from our suppliers. To ensure that we partner with ethical suppliers, our standard purchase order terms and conditions require compliance with all applicable law. We also generally require a covenant in any other contract with a supplier that the supplier will act in accordance with all applicable law. In fiscal year 2018, these terms will be updated to contain language specifically requiring compliance with all applicable anti-slavery, human rights, human trafficking and labor laws. To the extent that we have not entered into formal contracts with our suppliers, we do not believe we conduct business with suppliers that violate our ethics standards.
